Kitsch and Culture in Medicine Hat

MEDICINE HAT, AB – The Esplanade Art Gallery and Medicine Hat College’s Visual Communications Program are pleased to announce “Fantasy and Other Real Things”, a look at kitsch and culture by visiting artist Betty Spackman, on Thursday Feb. 16, 7:30 PM.

Fantasy and Other Real Things

A Look at Kitsch and Culture by Betty Spackman

Betty Spackman is a multi media artist whose work is centred on cultural objects and the stories connected to them. It has been presented throughout Canada, including at the National Gallery of Canada, and in Germany, Austria, The Netherlands, Switzerland, Sweden and the USA. She is the author of several books, including A Profound Weakness: Christians & Kitsch.

Presented by the Esplanade Art Gallery and the Visual Communications Program at Medicine Hat College.
